

Wedding Photography Package List

Wedding planning is fun but as with all the important decisions for your Big Day it comes with the need of having to turn choices into decisions. Among those choices your wedding photography will give you much food for thought with decisions to be made on how to capture your wedding day memories – length of coverage, style of images, quality of products and of course value for your budget. When the dress has been worn and the music has been played, your wedding photographer will have captured for you memories of your Special Day that will last you a life time.

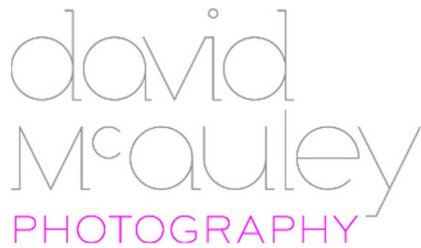

As a professional Wedding Photographer I believe in meeting with a wedding couple to ensure they get what they want from their wedding day photography at a price that is agreeable to them. I will discuss options available if you haven't already pre-selected a specific format, and endeavour to guide you to a choice that suits your specific needs.

I have created the following packages based on 'Full Day' coverage from Bridal Preparation to 1st dance. Each can be selected 'as is' or with refinement, (coverage and/or product) to achieve a wedding photography package which like your fiancé is 'right for you'.
